National Small Business Training Network

The National Small Business Training Network is dedicated to the concept of increasing this country's economic development through enhancing small business management training resources. It relies on two-year colleges across the nation to carry out the work:

NSBTN makes available two publications designed to improve small business training program development and increase resource availability.

National Small Business Training Network 1982 Directory. $5.

An indispensable tool for people looking for collaborative relationships and a resource exchange among small business trainers. Lists contact persons at NSBTN member institutions as well as U.S. Small Business Administration management-assistance field personnel.

Small Business Training: Models for Community Growth. 1983. $10.

Presents nine models of successful college-based programs in economically diverse community settings. Community, technical-vocational, and technical colleges are cited.

Student Aid Progress Report

Student Aid and Public Higher Education: A Progress Report. Jacob O. Stampen and Roxanne Wilkie Reeves, 1983. $5.

A report sponsored by the American Association for Community and Junior Colleges, the American Association of State Colleges and Universities, and the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges, analyzing the distribution and impact of student financial assistance at public colleges and universities during the academic year 1981-82, based upon approximately 12,000 student aid recipient records of 226 participating institutions.

College/Business Relationships

Two companion monographs that offer the most comprehensive examination of community, technical, and junior college relationships with business, available for $6 each or $10 as a set:

Shoulders to the Wheel: Energy-Related College/Business Cooperative Agreements. Mary Jane Jackman and James R. Mahoney, 1982.

Describes 40 exemplary cooperative programs, outlines the benefits and problems of these programs, and sketches general concerns about their expansion within the colleges.

Community College Centers for Contracted Programs. James R. Mahoney, 1982.

Focuses on 15 model administrative units established to coordinate and expand contract programs with business and other community groups.

Chief Executive Officers

The Presidents and Chancellors. 1982. $15.

An exclusive source of information about the leaders of two-year colleges, containing biographical profiles and photographs. Published by AACJC and its Presidents Academy.

Chief Executive Officers Contracts and Compensation, 1981. R. Stephen Nicholson. $10.

Based on a study directed by the author (chairman of the Presidents Academy), this report provides up-to-date, comparative data relative to the compensation of chief executive officers and certain provisions of their employment, including fringe benefits.
